The Cape Welsh Choir is proud to produce in conjunction with the Royal Air Force Association, a Gala event to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain.

Come join with us in an extravaganza of nostalgia and remembrance of the brave servicemen and women who gave their all to repel the might of the Luftwaffe and alter the course of history to gain victory in World War II.

Experience with us the atmosphere of the songs of yesteryear that boosted the Nation in its time of need.

Celebrate the bravery of the RAF fighter pilots, British, South African, Canadian, Australian and many others, who defeated a foe so much mightier than themselves.

"Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few."

Hear the magical songs of Vera Lynn sung by our very own Yvette Elliott.

With a celebration of WW2 songs and music, featuring the Cape Welsh Choir, soloist Yvette Elliott (Vera Lynn songs) Cape Field Artillery Pipes and Drums with special guests Royal Air Force Salon Orchestra And Queen's Colour Squadron Narrated by Ralph Thornley
