BURN'S NICHT – 28TH JANUARY 2012

Dear Members and Friends

Jacinta and I wish you all a very Happy New Year 2012 and hope that you've had a wonderful time during the Christmas season and over Hogmany.

This is a little late in coming to you but, like a lot of folk at this time of year, we've been on leave and are trying to catch up.

Our next major function is, of course, Burn's Nicht. This special occasion will have all the usual tributes to the Bard as well as good food with, of course, Haggis! We don't want it to be a dour evening but a celebration of a special life, after all we're commemorating Robbie Burn's birth not his death so it should be a birthday party. We're going to do our best to make it just that but include everything that you're used to during the evening.

Just like St Andrews Nicht when we celebrated the 130th Anniversary of the Society, seating is limited so we urge you to book now to ensure you will be able to enjoy this celebration of Burns life. To give you an idea of the bookings for St Andrews Nicht, over three quarters of the available seating was booked up during the first week of advertising and, in the end, we were over-subscribed. So don't delay, BOOK NOW for Burn's Nicht!
